ASQ Greater Detroit Section Recognizes Members by Kush Shah

This special edition of the Quality Herald recognizes our ASQ Greater Detroit Section members and their accomplishments.

The ASQ Greater Detroit Section is fortunate to have many highly distinguished members, who have truly compiled an impressive list of honors so far this year. This issue records some of those achievements.

I wanted to take a moment to recognize some local section officers and volunteers who have received awards this year:

- Steve Sibrel, who received the Distinguished Service Award at the ESD banquet earlier this year, for his work as Professional Development Chair. Steve is responsible for planning and implementing the General Membership Meetings.
- John Mantyk, who also received the Distinguished Service Award for his volunteer help to the section.

I also had the pleasure of presenting the ASQ Member Leader Excellence Award to our incoming Section Chair, Elizabeth Hanna, for her long and outstanding service to the ASQ Greater Detroit Section, particularly in her role as Recertification Chair. Elizabeth has been Recertification Chair for the longest duration in the history of the section, and has performed this role with great efficiency and attention to detail.

For the second year, the Department of Pathology at Henry Ford Hospital, in affiliation with Macomb Community College, is offering a 16 week course in LEAN Process Improvement in Healthcare. This course is a 3 credit hour requirement for the Quality Technology Manager program and is listed as Continuous Process Improvement. It begins late August 2009. The student will learn "how to" implement process improvements in real life with a hands-on approach in a clinical health care setting located within the laboratory.

ASQ Spring Events Recap & Upcoming Tour by Peter Vadhanasindhu

The ASQ Greater Detroit Section had a busy spring with numerous meetings and seminars.

The March General Membership Meeting featured Amy Dickerson on Career Change Management. Dickerson, an HR consultant and career coach, also helped ASQ members by conducting a free individual resume review workshop after the meeting.

In April, Dana Clarke, President, Applied Innovation Alliance, presented a discussion about Structured Innovation (partially based on TRIZ, the theory of inventive problem solving). The meeting was hosted by AIAG at their headquarters in Southfield.

The May General Membership Meeting featured Karen Kusler from the University of Central Oklahoma, who spoke about Lean Principles in Education.

The ASQ Greater Detroit Section also held two seminars. The second part of the Measurement Systems Analysis (MSA) seminar took place in March, and featured Ruan Varney and Joe Lucido from Henry Ford Hospital speaking about MSA in Health Care, Steve Graf explaining measurement uncertainty, and Dr. Rajinder Kapur discussing ANOVA methods.

Noted author and Lean Six Sigma guru Forrest Breyfogle was the keynote speaker at the ASQ June seminar. The event offered ASQ members a set of Breyfogle's Integrated Enterprise Excellence books included with the seminar.

A tour of Stahl's Automotive Foundation Museum will be offered to ASQ members and their families on Aug. 8, 2009, 11 AM - 1 PM. The museum is located at 22960 Industrial Dr. West, St. Clair Shores, MI. More information about the museum can be found on the website: www.stahlsauto.com
